

THE ULTIMATE RETREAT

When precious 'me' time counts, and you are seeking after pure relaxation, Hayman has the perfect answer: its new spa experience at Spa Chakra Hayman.

STORY ROSALIND HANLEY

Discover a new level of holiday relaxation at Spa Chakra Hayman, the latest member of the prestigious Spa Chakra Alliance. This global network operates boutique spas for a growing number of the world's most luxurious properties and has its L'Institut de Guerlain headquarters on the Champs-Élysées in Paris. Hayman's new spa offers guests an enhanced variety of treatments and lifestyle programmes designed to restore balance and wellbeing while employing the patented Guerlain Methode for facial and body massage used by the Institut since 1938.

Hayman – listed by Condé Nast and Travel + Leisure as one of the world's best destinations and a member of Leading Hotels of the World – offers the rare luxury of a true five-star experience. Built around stunning lagoons, shady ponds and gentle waterfalls, which complement the magnificent reef location, the Hayman experience is geared towards ensuring total relaxation and indulgence, from start to finish.

Arrive via boat with a glass of champagne and the smell of salt spray setting the mood, or take a seaplane or helicopter. Hayman staff will then personally escort you to your suite and be at your beck and call to ensure you get the very best out of this most lauded of resorts. Add to the tropical setting the blissful experience of the spa's advanced hydrotherapy, body wraps, polishes and full-body massage treatments, and Hayman will have you floating gently back to reality.

Three nights at Hayman start from $915 per person twin share, including accommodation, return luxury cruise launch transfers from Great Barrier Reef Airport (Hamilton Island) and daily buffet breakfast in Azure, facing the crystal waters of the Coral Sea. ■
